Section II., SCOPE, Paragraph 1., Subparagraph c.,
Now reads...

- c. Identify and schedule work tasks 2 weeks in advance that will require no less than 10 labors and 1 correctional officer (a "work unit") per work day. Coordinate with assigned correctional officers, monitor the work and provide guidance. On an exception (as available) basis, and by the mutual agreement of the parties thereto involved, provide transportation and sanitary facilities. Inspect completed work and advise ADC of accountability.

References to DOT shall now read ADOT (Arizona Department of Transportation).

Section II., SCOPE, Paragraph 1., The ADOT will, Subparagraph c., Changed to read...

- c. Identify and schedule work tasks two (2) weeks in advance that will require no less than ten (10) inmates. Coordinate with assigned CO, monitor the work and provide job supervision. On an exception (as available) basis, and by the mutual agreement of the parties provide transportation and sanitary facilities. Inspect completed work and advise ADC of accountability.
 - 1) Job supervision means the Contractor's staff shall supervise inmates in accordance with Department written instructions during the work day to ensure the inmates are supervised and accounted for. Job supervision shall also include scheduled telephonic reports of inmate counts to the institution providing labor by the Contractor's staff.

Section II., SCOPE, Paragraph 2., The ADC will, Subparagraph d.,
Now reads...

- d. Provide security supervision of inmate work crews.

Section II., SCOPE, Paragraph 2., The ADC will, Subparagraph d., Changed to read...

- d. To provide security supervision of inmate workers in accordance with Department written instructions.

This amendment shall be effective when all signatures are affixed.
